SPEAKING TOPICS

Have you heard about THE GOD POD? Every week God and Jesus speak out about ALL the problems with the world they created.

THE GOD POD is a fresh and funny take on all the latest news happening in America, The World, Heaven, Hell and beyond!

Every week, God is joined by Jesus, The Holy Spirit, Moses and Satan to discuss the latest in the goddamn news!

God also answers questions from listeners! That's right, God will read your foolish mortal question and answer it on-air.

God reads hate-mail, which he gets a lot of for some reason?

Listen in as God as interviews comedians, authors, doctors, scientists, atheists, and religious experts of all kinds. Recent guests include comedians Blaire Erskine, Brent Terhune, Kylie Brakeman, Corey Ryan Forrester, Niccole Thurman and author Mary L. Trump.

Dayum! THE GOD POD is clearly the best podcast in the entire multiverse.
Can I get an amen?

Thou shalt listen to THE GOD POD everywhere thou gets thy favorite podcasts!

BIO

Since 2011, God has been making waves all over social media. In 2014, God went viral after putting a billboard in the hometown of the Westboro Baptist Church that said 'God Loves Gays.'

In 2019, God launched THE GOD POD.

God

"Can I get an amen?"

"HOLY SHIT!"

"SMITE!"

"The LORD has spoken!"

Meet God! God is furious that evil televangelists use him to justify their bigotry, so God is speaking out! God realizes he's made mistakes in the past and wants to make things right.

God seeks to restore order to the multiverse. While God may have been a bit toxic back in the Old T, back when he flooded the world and stuff, these days God is super woke.

So watch out, bad guys! Because God's gonna cut you down.

Jesus

"Hi Dad!"

"Please don't ask me how it's hanging."

"I love dominoes pizza!"

Meet Jesus! Jesus is a loving, kind, empathetic soul. Jesus does his best to keep his Dad from freaking out and instructs him to breathe.

Jesus believes that everyone should have free food and healthcare. The very first millennial, Jesus has been a socialist for over 2,000 years.

His naivete can get him in trouble, but he never stops believing that we should forgive people for they know not what they do. In other words, they're stupid dumbasses. So go easy on them.

Holy Spirit

"Step away."

"Damn it all to hell!"

"OH HELL NAW!"

Meet The Holy Spirit! The Holy Spirit has had God's back since the beginning of time.

The Holy Spirit is a spunky dove that doesn't take shit from anyone. Whether it's a murderous bear or a smoke monster, she's blessed with the divine power to take any form. Remember the plagues of Egypt? That was The Holy Spirit's most famous moment.

Although she is absolutley adorable, The Holy Spirit is ALWAYS down to smite.

Moses

"Oy vey!"

"He's a real mensch."

"I would've liked to have visited the promised land."

Meet Moses! Moses did a lot of work with God back in the old days.

After parting the Red Sea and leading his people out of Egypt, Moses wandered the desert at God's command for over 40 years.

These days, Moses spends a LOT of time watching cable news.

An elderly man from the desert, Moses is often cold and always appreciates a warm blanket.

Satan

"I'm Q."

"Fox News makes a lot of good points."

"I smanged Marjorie Taylor Green."

Meet Satan! Satan has been God's adversary for a long, long time.

But lately God has been having Satan on The God Pod and becoming closer work friends. They've realized that they have both been wack in the past, and have a lot more in common than they ever imagined.

Or maybe Satan is just really charming and manipulative! Did you know he's responsible for all evil in the world? Imagine!

Death

"Please stop letting so many people die needlessly. I am so tired."

"Yass Queen!"

Meet Death! Death has been working overtime lately harvesting souls, and is really in need of a vacation.

While she enjoys her job, she doesn't enjoy working overtime.

Death is surprisingly upbeat about her job and resents how she has been depicted in movies and tv shows.

Her favorite color is aubergine.
